AMENITIES OF LIFE IN HONOLULU

The Mutinous Situation on the Steamer Olympia.

THE RACE FEELING

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star.

HONOLULU, October 26, 1895.

Soon after our last mall went it was semi-officially ennounced that the present Hawalian envoy at Washington, Mr. W. R. Castle, would shortly retire, and that Mr. Francis M. Hatch, the present minister of foreign affairs, would take his place. It is now known that although Mr. Hatch had not then consented to go, Mr. Castle took the office-for only six months, with the promise of being relieved at the end of that time. It was considered highly expedient by this government not to leave the Washington embassy very long vacant, lest it should be construed as exhibiting resentment at the request for Mr. Thurston's recall, and to be made a reason for recalling the American minister from Honolulu. Also unforeseen occasions might arise at Washington for the special services of a diplomat, even before the assembling of Congress in December. By that time Mr. Hatch hopes to assume the duties of the office.

Mr. Hatch is slightly undersized and Queer Renson for Assaulting Geological Survey Parties.

The geological survey has furnished an interesting question as to jurisdiction in a complaint from Mr. Hersey Munroe, chief of a topographical surveying party that has been at work in the field this season in portions of Virginia and West Virginia. Mr. Munroe reports that recently a party of roughs at Monmouth, W. Va., attacked the cook of the party, pulled him off his wagon, struck him with stones, usel him very roughly, and then set upon Mr. Munroe, without a word of warning 'rom the roughs or provocation from the surveyors, very roughly, and then set upon Mr. Munroee, without a word of warning 'rom the roughs or provocation from the surveyors, and struck him with a stone, which made a deep wound in the back of his head. Mr. Munroe was so badly hurt that he is unable to work. Officers are after the culprits, but had not at last accounts caught them. On another occasion theves broke into the cook's tent and into one belonging to members of the party. Mr. Munroe says he has always tried to keep on friendly terms with the people among whom he has gone on surveying work, and cannot account for the attack on the party. The geologists carry no arms, and are very carry no arms, and are very consistent of the survey of the survey of the proper law officers of the government will take steps to prosecute the assailants of Mr. Munroe's party. Mr. Munroe says the justice of the peace to whom he applied for a warrant to arrest the roughs told him he had better keep culet and pass the matter by, as there were a good many "fakes" through the country this year. Mr. Wilson says there have been several "fake" parties in Georgia, who have buncoed and swindled the natives by representing they were employes of the United States geological survey. This may account for the trouble. "Fake" parties can be prosecuted under a law passed by Congress in 1854, making it a felony for any one faisely to represent hall provide sufficient portection for United States surveying parties, so that persons who attack or moiest them can be taken into federal courts and prosecuted.

Hatch hopes to assume the duties of the office.

Mr. Hatch is slightly undersized and slender, perhaps forty-live years old. His appearance conveys the impression of acuteness and vigilance, as well as of a not uncongenial disposition. We have among us perhaps no man who better looks the keen lawyer and capable diplomat. His koks do not belle blm. He stands in the foremost rank of our legal fraternity, with Hartwell and Thurston. As minister of foreign affairs he has shown distinguished ability, for which there has been special call since the insurrection in dealing with a standard and America for various individuals who experienced swertiles for their connection with that attempt. His appointment has received general commendation, even from foes of the government, as one altogether fitting. Mutiny on the Olympia.

After fifty-one flays' sojourn at these is-ands the United States cruiser Olympia salled on the 28th for Asiatic waters. She sailed on the 28th for Asiatic waters. She has lain in all some ten days near Honolulu, but too far outside of the harbor to allow her form to become familiar to Honolulu, people. Last week the recollection was revived of there having been serious trouble at San Dieso among the ship's company, in the form of dissatisfaction and mutinous indications among the men. Something of that sort occurred here, as such at least as infection supplies of fresh "grab" from the shore had been strictly prohibited. On the 17th, however, while the Olympia was taking in coal from a leumch alongside, supplies of fresh of the 18th and the shore had been strictly prohibited. On the 17th, however, while the Olympia was taking in coal from a leumch alongside, supplies of fresh food were takin aboard for the of-heers. This was followed by a stand heing taken by the sailors that they must also have the same privilege, which was only resonable. If leutenants could cat shore grab without danger of infection sailors might take do so. Their demant was grant-been made to the extent of the men in all body refusing to bandle the coal.

During the whole of her five weeks' stay at the wholly uninfected port of Lahaina, where the officers freely went ashore, the crew had no "shore leave" whatever. This was certainly a great hardship. The town is a very small and quiet one, where the men could not easily get into trouble. It is possible that desertions were feared; but it must be a bad state of things on a slip when fear of rent rumor here that the men were disposed to desert; and this was strengthened by the consumin of a boat least week at the wharf walking of and being seen no more.

It seems to be pretty well assertatined that the captain of the Olympia is lacking in the best governing qualities, and that the executive officer is harsh and severe. The dector also has been extremely strict and fussly in his precautions gainst infection by choiera. Altogether, it is evident that the ship's company have not been enjoying a very agree. has lain in all some ten days near Honolulu, but too far outslue of the harbor to allow

The truth was that the China refused to take the Yokohama muils, by order of her owners, because that was an infected port. In like manner the China refused to take our mails to San Francisco, but yielded to a pressure which we were able to put upon her. These Japanese still feel sure that the government is their enemy, because Portuguese and Chinese contract immisrants have been favored instead of Japanese. Of all the remedies that have been prepared, Dr.º Pierce's Pleasant Pellets best fill all the requirements. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. One is a laxative—two a mild cathartic. They cure constipation, billousness, dyspepsia, distress after eating, sour stomach, "heart-burn," dizziness, foul breath and all disorders due to imperfect digestion. Each little vial holds from forty-two to forty-four Pellets, and sells at the same price as the more common and cheaper made pills. A free sample package (4 to 7 doses) will be sent on request. Once used, they are always in favor. WORLD'S DISPINSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
